

2010 ANNUAL UUSC RIGHTS MEET

Thursday, December 10, 2009
Media Arts Center
Roxbury Community College
7 p.m.

Groundbreaking former Mayoral candidate Mel King is a crusader, educator, politician, community organizer, social entrepreneur, author, and technology buff, but above all he's an unassuming and untiring human rights activist. The evening's tribute and reflection will inspire you to act on Eleanor Roosevelt's belief in universal human rights.

EVENT CO-CHAIRS

Flash and Bennie Wiley, Beth Graham and William Schulz

HOST COMMITTEE

Frances Moore Lappé, Gloria White-Hammond and Ray Hammond, Howard Zinn, Gus Newport

Join UUSC in celebrating International Human Rights Day!

Mel King

will be honored with the Eleanor Roosevelt Human Rights Award.

This event is free and open to the public. Free parking is available. Space is limited. RSVP to rsvp@uuscs.org or call 617-301-4381. Please stay afterward for light refreshments and fellowship.

uuscs.org

UUSC | 689 Massachusetts Ave | Cambridge, MA 02139