

We'll Give You One Week To Change The World

Become an electoral activist in summer 2004

Join us as we honor the courage and sacrifice of the young people who registered voters in Mississippi as part of Freedom Summer in 1964. In partnership with the Unitarian Universalist Association, we're taking UU youth and young adults from around the country this summer on a civil rights journey to Atlanta, Selma, Montgomery and Birmingham, where the stories told by those who were there will inspire a new generation. This Freedom Summer Workcamp: A Civil Rights Journey, to be held July 6-12, will train participants to return to their campuses and communities as Defending Democracy electoral activists.

Or you could attend a weeklong Defending Democracy Workcamp in Boston or New York City during the national political conventions, where you will be trained to register voters, get-out-the-vote, monitor polls and assist in issues education. The workcamp in Boston will be held July 26-30 and the New York workcamp will be Aug. 30 to Sept. 3.

Make this the summer you help strengthen democracy. You'll be amazed how much you can accomplish in one week!
