

Welcome

A Guest at Your Table

2013–2014

Welcome your guest

By welcoming a “guest at your table,” you are helping nurture a spirit of gratitude and the UU values of justice, equity, and compassion in human relations. Guest at Your Table fosters understanding and awareness of UUSC’s human rights work and our shared belief in social justice.

Participate together

Learn about human rights leaders empowering others through Stories of Hope. Consider reading or discussing a story when enjoying meals with family and friends. These stories will connect you to real people who are involved in the daily struggle for human rights. Telling the stories of their hopes, dreams, and achievements is a meaningful way to bring these special guests into your home.

Share your blessings

Make a regular practice of giving contributions to your “guests,” perhaps at mealtimes or other household gatherings. On the closing date announced by your congregation, return your donations to your local organizer. If your final gift totals $100 or more, it will be eligible to be matched dollar for dollar through a grant from the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock in Manhasset, N.Y., doubling the impact of your efforts!

Unitarian Universalist

Service Committee

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) is guided by the values of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the principles of Unitarian Universalism, which uphold the inherent worth and dignity of all people. UUSC strengthens workers’ rights; protects the right to safe, affordable water; defends civil liberties and democratic processes; and preserves the rights of people overlooked in times of disaster and armed conflict. UUSC is an independent human rights organization and receives no financial support from the UUA or the federal government.

Join UUSC!

UUSC’s projects are made possible by the activism and generosity of more than 42,000 supporters. UUSC membership benefits begin at $40 or above. Your generous participation in Guest at Your Table makes you part of the change that UUSC works toward throughout the world.

Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
689 Massachusetts Avenue • Cambridge, MA 02139
info@uuscc.org • 800-766-5236 • uuscc.org

Welcome

A Guest at Your Table

2013–2014

Welcome your guest

By welcoming a “guest at your table,” you are helping nurture a spirit of gratitude and the UU values of justice, equity, and compassion in human relations. Guest at Your Table fosters understanding and awareness of UUSC’s human rights work and our shared belief in social justice.

Participate together

Learn about human rights leaders empowering others through Stories of Hope. Consider reading or discussing a story when enjoying meals with family and friends. These stories will connect you to real people who are involved in the daily struggle for human rights. Telling the stories of their hopes, dreams, and achievements is a meaningful way to bring these special guests into your home.

Share your blessings

Make a regular practice of giving contributions to your “guests,” perhaps at mealtimes or other household gatherings. On the closing date announced by your congregation, return your donations to your local organizer. If your final gift totals $100 or more, it will be eligible to be matched dollar for dollar through a grant from the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock in Manhasset, N.Y., doubling the impact of your efforts!

Unitarian Universalist

Service Committee

The Unitarian Universalist Service Committee (UUSC) is guided by the values of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the principles of Unitarian Universalism, which uphold the inherent worth and dignity of all people. UUSC strengthens workers’ rights; protects the right to safe, affordable water; defends civil liberties and democratic processes; and preserves the rights of people overlooked in times of disaster and armed conflict. UUSC is an independent human rights organization and receives no financial support from the UUA or the federal government.

Join UUSC!

UUSC’s projects are made possible by the activism and generosity of more than 42,000 supporters. UUSC membership benefits begin at $40 or above. Your generous participation in Guest at Your Table makes you part of the change that UUSC works toward throughout the world.

Unitarian Universalist Service Committee
689 Massachusetts Avenue • Cambridge, MA 02139
info@uuscc.org • 800-766-5236 • uuscc.org