

Meet This Year's Guests!

During the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee's Guest at Your Table program, you get to meet grassroots activists on the front lines of the human rights movement. We're excited to introduce you to these leaders who care for their neighbors next door, across borders, and worldwide.

Widlore Mérancourt

is a journalist fighting for state accountability and community care in Haiti.

Alejandro and Martha are creating a home for people in migration at Casa Tochán.

Yulia Kondur is advocating for gender equity and human rights for the Roma community in Ukraine.

UUUs like you are building communities of welcome with the Community Accompaniment Program with Asylum-Seekers (CAPAS).
